“Troon Vineyard hosts Wildlife Images benefit concert featuring Quarterflash”

Grants Pass, Ore.- May 15th, 2011- Troon Vineyard set to host Wildlife Images benefit concert featuring 80s rock band, Quarterflash, June 18th at 5:30 pm. Expected to be attended by hundreds of guests, the event will host local restaurants, Casa Amiga’s, Hannah’s, and Rosie’s Inferno Wood Fired Pizza, to provide fantastic food options for purchase as well as a decadent dessert auction.

“When Troon approached us to host our fundraiser we felt that our shared values of community, wildlife and education, was a perfect partnership. And what a unique experience this will be! How many people get to enjoy a concert in such a amazing setting?” Steve Hardie, President of the Wildlife Images Board explains of the partnership.

Quarterflash, Oregon natives, hit it big in 1980 with their single, “Harden my Heart.” The husband and wife duo toured with the likes of Elton John and Linda Ronstadt before returning to Oregon to form Ross Productions to create music for NW audiences. Quarterflash is excited to support such a great Oregon cause.

Wildlife Images a private non-profit rehabilitation and education center was established in 1981. Located on 24 acres of “living laboratory” adjacent to the wild and scenic Rogue River, approximately 12 miles west of Grants Pass, Wildlife Images receives and cares for over 1,000 animals every year at no charge to individuals or organizations.

Tickets for the Benefit Concert are $55.00 for the general public and $49.50 for Wildlife Images Members and are on sale at Wildlife Images, 11845 Lower River Road, Grants Pass, Evergreen Bank in Grants Pass or online at <https://secure.acceptiva.com/?cst=fc268d>.

In addition to the benefit concert, Troon Vineyard plans to construct a Wildlife Images Pavilion on their Vintner’s Lawn to host events with 10% of the ongoing proceeds going back to the local non-profit.

Troon Vineyard is dedicated to the pursuit of “Good Times and Fine Wines.” Located in the viticultural heart of the Applegate Valley, the winery and vineyard are set on a beautiful 98 acre property with panoramic views, providing a stunning backdrop for tasting our signature Zinfandel, Tannat, Vermentino and unique blends.
